About IELTS

The International English Language Testing System (IELTS) is a test that measures the language proficiency of those who want to study or work in environments where English is used as a language of communication.

There are two modules to choose from:
IELTS Academic and IELTS General Training.

IELTS Academic

To study at the undergraduate or postgraduate level.

To join a professional organisation or registration in an English-speaking country.

IELTS General Training

G

To work or undertake work-related training in an English-speaking country.

To immigrate to an English-speaking country.

To study or train at below degree level.

Each organisation sets its own entry requirements. In some cases, both the Academic and General Training module may be accepted. If you are in doubt as to which module to take, you should contact the organisation to which you are applying to confirm their requirements.

IELTS for UKVI

'IELTS for UKVI' is a UK government-approved Secure English Language Test (SELT). This means that IELTS can be used to prove your English language abilities in support of a UK Visa and Immigration (UKVI) application.

To find out whether you need to take an approved SELT test, what level you need to achieve and which test you can use, please visit <https://www.ieltsasia.org/id/study-in-uk/ukvi>

The IELTS test format

The actual test taken is the same for both IELTS and IELTS for UKVI, with the same content, examiners, format, level of difficulty, scoring and so on. The only difference between the two is that IELTS for UKVI is administered in a test venue with video recording and CCTV facilities.

Listening (Time: 30 minutes, plus 10 minute extra to transfer your answer to the sheet in paper-based IELTS)

There are four sections, which include both monologues and conversations. A variety of voices and accents are used and each section is played only once.

Reading (Time: 60 minutes)

Academic

There are three long reading passages with tasks. Texts range from descriptive and factual to the discursive and analytical and may include non-verbal material such as diagrams, graphs or illustrations. Texts are authentic and taken from books, journals, newspapers, magazines and other sources.

General Training

There are three reading passages with tasks. Section 1 contains two or three short factual texts. Section 2 contains two short, work-related, factual texts. Section 3 contains one longer text on a topic of general interest. Texts are authentic and are taken from company handbooks, official documents, books, newspapers and other sources.

Writing (Time: 60 minutes)

Academic

There are two tasks in total. In Task 1, you are presented with a table, graph, chart or diagram and are asked to describe, summarise or explain the information in no less than 150 words. In Task 2, you are asked to write an essay of no less than 250 words in response to a point of view, argument or problem.

General Training

There are two tasks. In Task 1, you are presented with a situation and are asked to write a letter of at least 150 words to request information or explain the situation. In Task 2, you are asked to write an essay of no less than 250 words in response to a point of view, argument or problem.

Speaking (Time: 11-14 minutes)

A video call interview comprised of three sections: short questions, speaking at length about a familiar topic and a structured discussion.

IELTS Life Skills

IELTS Life Skills is for people bound for the UK who need to show that they have speaking and listening skills at Level A1, A2 or B1 of the Common European Framework (CEFR) of Reference for Languages.

A1

This test is for those who need to prove their English speaking and listening skills as part of their application to UK Visas and Immigration for the ‘family of a settled person’ visa.

A2

This test is for those who need to prove their English speaking and listening skills as part of their application to UK Visas and Immigration for an extension to a Family, Spouse or Partner visa.

B1

This test is for those who need to prove their English speaking and listening skills as part of their application to UK Visas and Immigration for indefinite leave to remain or citizenship.

The IELTS Life Skills test format

IELTS Life Skills is a speaking and listening test. You will take the test face-to-face with an examiner, along with one other candidate. You will participate in a structured conversation listening and responding to a selection of tasks.

The tasks in IELTS Life Skills are designed to reflect the everyday experience of communicating in an English-speaking country. You will be expected to take part in short discussions on everyday subjects.

You will be expected to:

Listen and respond to spoken language, including simple narratives, statements, questions and single-step instructions

- Communicate basic information, feelings and opinions on familiar topics.
- Talk with another person in a familiar situation about familiar topics.

You will be expected to:

Listen and respond to spoken language, including straightforward information, short narratives, explanations and instructions.

- Communicate information, feelings and opinions on familiar topics.
- Talk with one or more people in a familiar situation to establish a shared understanding about familiar topics.

You will be expected to:

Listen and respond to spoken language, including straightforward information and narratives, and follow straightforward explanations and instructions.

- Communicate information, feelings and opinions on familiar topics using appropriate formality.
- Talk with one or more people in a familiar situation, making relevant points and responding to what others say to reach a shared understanding about familiar topics.

You can now take IELTS on a computer!

What is IELTS on Computer?

If you choose IELTS on Computer, you will take the Listening, Reading and Writing sections on a computer. The Speaking test will be delivered via Video Call with a certified IELTS examiner from across the globe.

All other aspects of the test are exactly the same, whether it is taken on paper or on computer, including:

Price

Scoring

Content

Speaking test delivery

Timings

Test Report Form

Question types

Results verification

The IELTS 9-band scale

You will be given a score from 1 to 9 for each part of the test: Listening, Reading, Writing and Speaking. The average of these four represents your overall band score. You can score whole (e.g: 5.0, 6.0, 7.0) or half (e.g: 5.5, 6.5, 7.5) bands in each part of the test.

| Band score | Skill level | Description | Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR) | |
|------------|------------------------|--|---|------------------|
| 9 | Expert user | You have a fully operational command of the language. Your use of English is appropriate, accurate and fluent, and you show complete understanding. | C2 | Proficient user |
| 8.5 | | | | |
| 8 | Very Good user | You have a fully operational command of the language with only occasional unsystematic inaccuracies and inappropriate usage. You may misunderstand some things in unfamiliar situations. You handle complex detailed argumentation well. | C1 | |
| 7.5 | Good user | You have an operational command of the language, though with occasional inaccuracies, inappropriate usage and misunderstandings in some situations. Generally, you handle complex language well and understand detailed reasoning. | | |
| 7 | | | | |
| 6.5 | Competent user | Generally, you have an effective command of the language despite some inaccuracies, inappropriate usage and misunderstandings. You can use and understand fairly complex language, particularly in familiar situations. | B2 | Independent user |
| 6 | | | | |
| 5.5 | | | | |
| 5 | Modest user | You have a partial command of the language, and cope with overall meaning in most situations, although you are likely to make many mistakes. You should be able to handle basic communication in your own field. | B1 | |
| 4.5 | | | | |
| 4 | | | | |
| 3 | Limited user | Your basic competence is limited to familiar situations. You frequently show problems in understanding and expression. You are not able to use complex language. | N/A | |
| 2 | Extremely Limited user | You convey and understand only general meaning in very familiar situations. There are frequent breakdowns in communication. | | |
| | Intermittent user | You have great difficulty understanding spoken and written English. | | |
| 1 | Non-user | You have no ability to use the language except for a few isolated words. | | |

Post-test services

IELTS

Test Results

Test results will be available 13 calendar days (IELTS on Paper) or 3-5 days (IELTS on computer) after the written test, excluding public holidays. You can view your results at <https://ielts.britishcouncil.org/CheckResults.aspx> (IELTS on Paper) or <https://ieltsregistration.britishcouncil.org> (IELTS on computer) from the day that the results are released.

Your IELTS result is valid for two years. Official results are given on a Test Report Form (TRF). Your TRF will be mailed to your correspondence address as inputted on your test taker portal. It may take up to 3 working days to deliver depends on your location.

If you wish to make a self-collection in our centre, please write to us at exams@britishcouncil.or.id right after you finished your test.

Please take note that we are not permitted to give results over the phone or by email.

Extra Test

Report Form (TRF)

You are given only ONE copy of the Test Report Form (TRF). As part of our service, the British Council can send five extra copies on your behalf to institutions via registered mail. If you require more than five extra copies to be sent to institutions, or if your request is made after the date of the exam, you will need to pay IDR 50.000 for each copy of the TRF. If you wish to have the TRF sent via courier service, a fee per address is applicable.

Please visit <https://www.britishcouncilfoundation.id/tes/ielts> for information about courier charges.

*Only IELTS recognising organisations subscribed to the electronic download service can download test takers' results.

Enquiry on

Result (EOR) Service

Test takers may apply for an enquiry on results (EOR) only at the centre at which they took the test and within six weeks of the test date. For a fee of IDR 1.720.000, the test taker's test material is forwarded to the UK for re-marking. If the score on any module increases after re-marking, the fee will be refunded. It takes around two to four weeks from receipt of the candidate's exam materials in the UK before the candidate is notified of the re-mark results. The candidate will receive an EOR feedback letter stating their final result status.
