Note for Speakers/Presenters

- We would strongly advice that presentations are uploaded in advance. If you make any changes to your slides, please re-send to us before the event. It is important to bring your presentation on a USB drive, which can be uploaded onto the laptop at the beginning of the conference day ahead of your presentation. This is very important, since the schedule is strict and we cannot afford to lose session time to loading presentations and tackling technical problems that may arise.
- British Council and technical staff will be available to assist presenters in uploading presentations.
- Presenters are required to go the designated area 15 minutes prior to their presentation start time.

F. Trip Preparation

Weather: The average temperature in Jakarta is between 20°-30°C.

What to wear?: Men should consider wearing a relaxed fit shirt such as the Indonesian batik. Woman may also consider traditional batik clothing or garments in light fabrics. As the venues will be air conditioned, it will be helpful to also carry a sweater, shawl or jacket.

G. About Jakarta

Jakarta is the capital city of the Republic of Indonesia. Jakarta is a huge, sprawling metropolis, home to over 10 million people with diverse ethnic group background from all over Indonesia. During the day, the number increases with commuters making their way to work in the city and flock out again in the evenings. Located on the northwest of Java Island, the province of DKI Jakarta has rapidly expanded through the years, absorbing many villages in the process. In fact, Jakarta is a conglomeration of villages known as kampung, now crossed by main roads and superhighways.

Exploring the city

Some of tourist attractions in Jakarta include:

- The National Monument (Indonesian: Monumen Nasional, abbreviated Monas) is a 132 m (433 ft) tower in the centre of Merdeka Square, Central Jakarta, symbolizing the fight for Indonesia. It is the national monument of the Republic of Indonesia, built to commemorate the struggle for Indonesian independence.

- Kota Tua Jakarta ("Jakarta Old Town") contains Dutch-style structures mostly dated from 17th century, when the port city served as the Asian headquarter of VOC during the heyday of spice trade. It spans 1.3 square kilometres within North Jakarta and West Jakarta. The largely Chinese downtown area of Glodok is a part of Kota Tua.

- The National Museum of Indonesia (Indonesian: Museum Nasional) is an archeological, historical, ethnological, and geographical museum located in Central Jakarta. The museum is regarded as one of the most complete and the best in Indonesia, as well as one of the finest museums in Southeast Asia. The museum has preserved about 141,000 objects, ranged from prehistoric artifacts, to archeology, numismatics, ceramics, ethnography, history and geography collections. It has comprehensive collections of stone statues of classical Hindu-Buddhist period of ancient Java and Sumatra, as well as quite extensive collections of Asian ceramics.

- Taman Mini Indonesia Indah (TMII) or "Beautiful Indonesia Miniature Park" is a synopsis of Indonesian culture, with virtually all aspects of daily life in Indonesia including architecture, clothing, dances and traditions. TMII is one of the most popular tourist destinations in the city.
